AT DAYENPORT CHURCH,

Rev. Mr. Davies of this city presided at the Davenport Congregational church yesterday morning in the ab sence of the past r. Rev. I. C. Meserve, who preached to Rockville. The Hart-ford Post of Saturday in its Rockville news says: "The Rev. I. C. Meserve o New Haven will preach again in the Union Congregational church on Sun day. He is certain to be greeted by large audience, as he preaches for the second time as a candidate." At Davenport church last evening delightful praise service was given be fore a large congregation under the di rection of Dr. Jones, by the mixed chol of the church numbering about fifteen The cantata, "The Coming o the King" was rendered. The entire work, consisting of seventy-eight page: of music, was rendered. Five s do part were required in its production; Soprane, contralto, tenor and baritones The soloists were Miss J. L. Saturday.

New York, Dec. 28.-To-day's stock market exhibited a better tone than at the close yesterday. This was due partly to growing hopefulness regarding the treasury situation and also to the denial, both on authority and in fact, of the many disturbing rumors current during the final dealings yesterday. The transactions were not large, but they were rather better distributed than for two days past, and a man who had invited them to take a the improvement la prices was very nearly general.

The weekly statement of averages of the associated banks shows an unusually heavy contraction in the loans. which cannot be entirely attributed to the smaller requirements of stock extrict chairmen and their visitors at change borrowers. Commercial accom-English Hall yesterday afternoon, Rev. | modations have obviously been curtailed in consequence of the uneasy feeling that developed ten days ago. The banks have lost a large amount of lawful money, chiefly through exports of gold, and the effect of these two changes upon the deposits is to bring them down over $16,000,000.
